Say it in Stitches launches new website

Premier national embroidery company revamps site with more resources and information for clients

Ft. Lauderdale, FL (July 27, 2010) – Say it in Stitches (www.sayitinstitches.com), a premier full-service contract embroidery and digitizing services company, has launched a new website to better serve clients and showcase its work.

The site, www.sayitinstitches.com, was redesigned with a fresh look and several features that provide additional value to clients, including:

- Promotions and special offers – marketing agencies, promotional products companies and screen printers can register on the home page to receive updates on specials and other news via email.
- Discounts for new clients on first order
- News and industry information – featuring educational articles on what to look for in the embroidery process
- Resources such as work order form, pricing list, thread color selection and conversion charts, glossary and price matching policy
- Request a quote – from the home page or always one click away
- Samples of work and Say it in Stitches' digitized logo database
- Say it in Stitches' blog, with educational information and news
- Home page links to Say it in Stitches' Facebook and Twitter pages, and blog
