Office Depot selects Say it in Stitches as embroidery services partner for Southeast region

National custom embroiderer inks deal to provide embroidery for corporate and client products

Ft. Lauderdale, FL (July 27, 2010) – Say it in Stitches (www.sayitinstitches.com), a premier full-service contract embroidery and digitizing services company, has been selected by Office Depot to provide contract embroidery services for branded apparel and accessories. Through the partnership, Say it in Stitches will embroider shirts, hats and other accessories to fulfill Office Depot’s internal needs as well as for the company’s clients served through the Copy & Print Depot group.

“We’re proud to secure this partnership with Office Depot in the Southeast, especially because we know by way of the thorough benchmarking process that they value quality vendors,” said Alex Fernandez, CEO of Say it in Stitches (SIIS).

After initial testing to showcase its embroidery quality, Say it in Stitches began work on branded items associated with Office Depot’s corporate NASCAR sponsorship, and will continue to provide services for other corporate needs. In addition, Office Depot’s “Copy & Print Depot” group, which offers custom promotional products for clients, will utilize Say it in Stitches for embroidery services on products it sells to Office Depot clients.

For more than 15 years, Say it in Stitches has digitized a multitude of logos under license and produced decorated apparel for many licensed brands.
